

113-B MARKETING, SALE AND SERVICING OF MICROINSURANCE PRODUCTS BY THRIFT BANKS¹

In order to better serve microfinance clients pursuant to the financial inclusion thrust of National Strategy and Regulatory Framework for Microinsurance, a TB, including its authorized branch/es, branch-lite unit/s, can present, market and sell microinsurance products as defined under the Insurance Commission's Memorandum Circular (IMC) No. 1-2010²: Provided, That the microinsurance product is duly approved by the Insurance Commission.

The presentation, marketing and sale of microinsurance products by TBs has been determined to be a necessary and complementary component of the primary business of TBs considering the relationship of the latter with their microfinance clients. For this purpose, the Monetary Board has defined that for TBs, microinsurance products as defined under IMC Nos. 9-2006³ and 1-2010⁴ shall serve as a "financial product of an allied undertaking" under Section 20 of the General Banking Law.

A TB can also service (i.e., collect premiums and pay claims) microinsurance products as collection and payment agents pursuant to Section 53.3 of the General Banking Law.

A TB which intends to avail of the option to market or sell microinsurance products shall ensure that microinsurance products presented and marketed are clearly distinguishable from bank products. Towards this end, all organic documents, informational and promotional materials used in the presentation and sale of these products shall prominently display both the name of the issuing insurance provider and a clause stating that the insurance product/s of (name of issuing insurance provider) is/ are not insured by the PDIC and is/are not guaranteed by the (name of bank)". The bank shall also ensure compliance with pertinent laws and rules on the sale of microinsurance products set by the Insurance Commission. As part of product due diligence, the bank should check whether the microinsurance product-issuing insurance provider has a functioning customer care and claims-handling mechanism to handle consumer protection issues.

A bank, prior to selling and/or marketing microinsurance products, shall submit the following documents to the Bangko Sentral as bases for the latter's evaluation:

- a. Copy of the approval of the bank's board of directors on the presentation, sale and servicing (i.e., collect premiums and pay claims) of microinsurance products;
- b. Copy of duly executed written agreement between the bank and the insurance provider on the presentation, sale and servicing by the bank of the financial products of the latter, including the terms of compensation for the services;
- c. Copy of the letter of approval from the Insurance Commission covering each of the microinsurance product to be marketed or sold by the bank;
